

“Black Panther” Inspired Free Summer Youth Program

A Collaboration between The City of Augusta, Commissioner William Fennoy, The Augusta Recreation and Parks Department and Karen Brown, former Ballerina with Dance Theatre of Harlem.

Registration: 7/1, 7/2 & 7/3/2019
5:30 – 7PM.

What: A FREE arts enriched youth program for 40 students that:

- builds technical and expressive skills through the universal language of dance
- develops confident communicators who can make a difference in their environment
- works with “Sister Sala”, a multi-faceted visual artist who creates through painting, writing, dancing, singing, teaching and learning
- teaches middle school students to improve their daily food and activity choices

When: Monday thru Friday 2 - 7pm from July 22nd through August 2, 2019

Where: Sand Hills Community Center; 2540 Wheeler Rd, Augusta, GA 30904

\(706\) 842-1912842-1912) (Corner of Fleming Ave. and Wheeler Road)

Who: Middle School Students ages 10 - 14 years old

Your gift of any amount will contribute to the development of the next generation of citizens for our community. PLEASE consider making a donation to help sponsor our program.

Thursday Seminar Series

5:30pm –7pm.
Sand Hills Community Center
2540 Wheeler Road
Corner of Fleming
Avenue & Wheeler Rd
Augusta, GA 30904
(706) 842-1912/1916

6/27: Guest Speaker:
Russell Joel Brown, Broadway
Actor

Russell Joel Brown’s “Project: Inspire”
weaves content from “The Lion King” with valuable life lessons.

7/11: Guest Speaker:
Sala Adenike, Visual Artist

AKA “Sister Sala” is a multifaceted artist who creates through painting, writing, dancing, singing, teaching and learning.

7/18: Guest Speaker :
Kwaku Nlongo, Lecturer &
Moderator

“Black Panther”
Hollywood Fantasy
or African Reality