

City of Augusta to host career coaching workshops

CONTACT: Danielle Harris, 706-564-3460, dharris@augustaga.gov

AUGUSTA, GA (July 15, 2021) – The Augusta- Richmond County Human Resources Department is launching the GROW Project, an initiative that provides free career coaching to help attendees gain professional skills to accelerate their job search and build confidence.

The first day of workshops will be held July 17 from 9-11 a.m. and noon- 2 p.m. and will highlight dressing for success and how to fill out a job application. Attendees will receive a voucher to a Goodwill store to receive a limited amount of professional clothing.

Building a strong resume and strengthening interview skills will be the focus of the second seminars being held July 24 from 9-11 a.m. and noon- 2 p.m.

All workshops are free and will be held in the Linda Beazley Community Meeting Room in the Augusta-Richmond County Municipal Building, located at 535 Telfair St.

To register for these events, contact Felicia Cretella, Employee Relations Analyst in the Augusta- Richmond County Human Resources Department, at 706-826-1377 or email fcretella@augustaga.gov.
