City of Augusta to host community budget forums

AUGUSTA, GA (Aug. 18, 2021) – The City of Augusta is inviting residents to share their input on the City's budget through public forums.

For the first time in the City's history, City leaders are hosting Community Budget Engagement Forums where residents can learn about the proposed 2022 budget, participate in interactive budget simulation activities, and give feedback on how money should be spent.

Seating is limited and masks are required for these events. Free registration is now available and view the complete schedule below:

- Sept. 9 from 5- 7 p.m. at Julian Smith Casino, 2200 Broad St.
