The Augusta Aquatic Center temporarily closed for maintenance

AUGUSTA, GA (Sept 3, 2021) – The Augusta Aquatic Center is temporarily closed until mid-September to undergo maintenance and repairs. However, the Brigham Swim Center, located at 2463 Golden Camp Road, will remain open to the public during this time.

“We appreciate the patience of our guests and patrons at the Aquatic Center while we work to bring the pools in tip-top shape,” said Augusta Parks & Recreation’s Yolanda Greenwood who has been tasked with overseeing the maintenance and repairs at the Aquatic Center.

“We are working on making amends to our members and visitors who currently cannot use the facility and are excited to share some updates on the re-opening soon,” Director Maurice McDowell added.

Membership passes for the Augusta Aquatic Center will be automatically extended and are also valid at the Brigham Swim Center during the maintenance time.
