Richmond County residents encouraged to complete
City of Augusta's Homeless Task Force Action Committee Survey

AUGUSTA, GA (Nov.16, 2021) – The City of Augusta's Homeless Task Force is seeking community input regarding ways to solve Augusta's homeless problem.

Residents are invited to complete a brief Homeless Task Force Action Committee Survey so City leaders can gather public perception on homeless issues. The online survey takes 5-10 minutes to complete, and it can be accessed now at "The City of Augusta's Homeless Task Force Action Committee is using this survey to develop strategies to identify and address barriers and issues faced by individuals experiencing homelessness in the Augusta area," said Commissioner Jordan Johnson, co-chair of the City's Homeless Task Force. "As we work to create the best community response possible, we need feedback from stakeholders. So, we are encouraging all citizens to take a few minutes to fill out the survey and share their thoughts and ideas with us."
