CELEBRATING 105 YEARS OF SERVICE

Dear Community Friends:

The Augusta-Richmond County Branch of the NAACP and the City of Augusta is now making plans for the 2023 Martin Luther King, Jr. Parade. Because this event commemorates one of our own historically renowned pioneers in the fight for justice and equality. We are asking organizations to share this same sentiment and take part in this effort.

You joining us would make this day one of the greatest. Enclosed you will find an entry form and details of the parade. If your organization wishes to participate, please complete the entry form. Please make sure you follow all guidelines as stated to better serve the event.

In order to ensure your placement in the line-up, we must receive your entry form by January 4, 2023 along with the entry fee if applicable to receive prior notice of line up.

All Applications & Payments Must be mailed to or dropped off to

Entrants Guidelines

1. All fees must be paid when application is turned in. Deadline - Wednesday, January 4, 2023. Please make sure you are accurate with your vehicle descriptions, tractors pulling flat bed trailers are not cars, and if your group enters more than one vehicle into the lineup, please note that on your registration. All vehicles must be marked displaying your organization's title to be entered. Example, if you are part of an auto club and you plan on participating, please state how many vehicles you will be using. All spots are based on what the registration form states, if there is only a car marked on the application, there will only be 1 spot reserved for that 1 vehicle.
2. If your organization/group will be participating, please notify all those involved with your group that there will be no cars/vehicle allowed within the parade lineup area after 11:00 a.m. unless they are an entrant in the parade. If you have children, etc, please arrange for them to meet you in Dyess Park at a certain time. These persons must walk to your designated meeting location; there will be no parents, etc allowed to drive within the parameter of Dyess Park. (Road Closures – 9th & Laney Walker and Walton Way, 10th and Laney Walker and Walton Way, as well as all side streets within this square.) Please Park at the John H. Ruffin Courthouse at the corner of James Brown Blvd @ Walton Way.
3. All parade lineup numbers will be assigned as they come in. Your assignment will be emailed to the address listed on the application – It is imperative that you print CLEARLY. If you cannot attend the mandatory meeting on Thursday, January 12, 2022. You will get your line up number on Saturday morning at the Check – In on 8th Street. (Only vehicles in the parade will be allowed to check in). Once your number has been assigned, please follow the following directions to enter the parade line up area: (please note the road closures will occur at 10:00 am sharp, and unless your vehicle is in the parade you will not be able to enter.) Please look carefully over the map enclosed in this packet.
