Augusta Information Technology Receives Award for Best Practices

AUGUSTA, GA (May 5, 2023) – Augusta Information Technology Department has been recognized as the 2023 winner of the GA Government Management Information Sciences (GMIS) Best Practices Award presented at their Spring Conference in Athens, GA. The GA GMIS is a leading professional association for government technology leaders, both municipalities and states, throughout Georgia.

This award recognizes the department for its implementation of their Information Technology Reorganization Plan. The plan utilized industry standards and best practices to demonstrate a more effective and efficient technology organization. This project allowed the department to retain and recruit qualified staff members while remaining within the allotted budget.

The Chief Information Officer (CIO), Ms. Tameka Allen, stated “It was truly a team effort. The leadership in the department came together along with the respective staff to implement this plan”.
