STANDING ORDER FOR MEDIATION IN CIVIL CASES

In accordance with the mandate of the Georgia Constitution of 1983 that the judicial branch of government provide “speedy, efficient and inexpensive resolution of disputes and prosecutions,” and pursuant to Uniform Superior Court Rule 1.2 as well as the Georgia Supreme Court’s Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules encouraging the use of alternative dispute resolution by the courts of this state, the following Standing Order for Mediation in Civil Cases is hereby entered. As set forth herein, all contested civil matters filed in the Superior Courts of the Augusta Judicial Circuit, unless exempted, as set forth below, must be mediated in accordance with this Order.

MEDIATION REQUIRED.

Mediation is a prerequisite to a case’s placement on the trial calendar, and must be conducted in compliance with this Order. All such mediations shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Augusta Judicial Circuit ADR Program (hereinafter “AJC ADR Program”.)

The parties shall agree upon a mediator from the roster of mediators registered by the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution (<http://godr.org/>) who have been chosen for service in the AJC ADR Program. A copy of the roster may be obtained by contacting the AJC ADR Program Director, Debbie Goode (hereafter "ADR Director"), at 706-821-2357 or dgoode@augustaga.gov.

Parties shall contact the mediator directly and schedule the mediation. The plaintiff's counsel shall provide the date of the mediation and the name of the mediator selected and agreed to by all parties, by completing the attached Notice of Mediation Status form (Attachment A hereto) which must be provided by email or U.S. mail to the ADR Director, prior to the scheduled session. Unless otherwise agreed, the parties shall share the cost of the mediator equally, and should be prepared to pay the mediator at the conclusion of the session. Should the parties fail to agree upon a mediator, the court or the ADR Director will appoint one for them and may set the fee. If any party is unable to afford the cost of mediation, they may contact the ADR Office to request an Application for Fee Waiver/Fee Reduction.

Should the parties desire to use a mediator not on the AJC ADR Program roster, they are permitted to petition the court to utilize any mediator provided he/she is registered with the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution in the appropriate category. If approved, prior to mediation, Plaintiff shall notify the ADR Director in writing of the name of the mediator, and the time and location of mediation. He/she shall be paid in accordance with the agreement of the parties and said mediator.

The parties and their counsel shall negotiate in good faith to resolve all issues in this case with the mediator. Within seven calendar days after mediation the parties shall notify the ADR Director whether mediation was successful by completing and submitting to the ADR Director a copy of the attached Attestation Form (Attachment B hereto,) as set forth below in the provision of this order entitled Attestation of Mediation Participation or Exemption. In the absence of settlement, the parties lose none of their rights to a final hearing or trial.

Compliance with this Order does not require the parties to reach a settlement. The mediator has no authority to compel settlement. Any settlement is entirely voluntary.

APPEARANCE.

The presence of parties at all mediation conferences is required unless the court excuses attendance for good cause shown. The requirement that a party appear at a mediation conference is satisfied if the following persons are physically present:

- (a) The party and/or:
 - (1) The party's representative who has:
 - (i) Full authority to settle without further consultation; and
 - (ii) A full understanding of the dispute and full knowledge of the facts;
 - (2) A representative of an insurance carrier for any insured party if that representative has full authority to settle without further consultation, except that telephone consultations with persons immediately available are permitted. Appearance of an insurance carrier's representative by telephone is only permitted if all parties agree to such telephonic appearance.

DISCRETIONARY EXEMPTIONS.

Any party may petition the court to exempt the case from mediation by filing a Mediation Exemption Petition, a copy of which shall also be provided to the ADR Director. An exemption from mediation may be requested for the following reasons:

(a) The issue(s) to be considered has been previously mediated by a mediator registered with the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution;

(b) The issue(s) presents a question of law only;

(c) Good cause shown before the judge to whom the case is assigned.

Any exemption shall be within the discretion of the court.

MANDATORY EXEMPTIONS.

The following shall be exempt from mediation except upon petition of all parties or upon sua sponte motion of the court:

(a) Appeals from rulings of administrative agencies;

(b) Forfeitures of seized properties;

(c) Bond validations; and

(d) Declaratory relief.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVILEGE.

The Georgia Supreme Court Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and the Augusta Judicial Circuit Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules provide protections, immunities, and benefits to parties, counsel, and registered neutrals in properly conducted court-connected mediations. All submissions provided to a registered mediator, discussions, representations, and statements made in connection with a court-connected mediation proceeding shall remain confidential and privileged consistent with Georgia law. Parties and neutrals acting in a court-annexed or court-referred ADR process are entitled to these confidentiality and immunity protections. (Supreme Court ADR Rule 6.1 and 6.2.) Non-registered mediators do not have the confidentiality or immunity protections provided by the Supreme Court of Georgia.

ATTESTATION OF MEDIATION PARTICIPATION OR EXEMPTION.

Prior to requesting a pretrial conference or trial date, the requesting party is directed to complete and submit a filed copy of the attached Attestation Form to the ADR Director. The original attestation shall be filed with the Clerk of Court. Failure to attest will result in continuance of the matter until compliance is demonstrated.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF ORDER

This Order shall become effective the date it is filed and shall apply to all civil cases except those exempted as described above.
