This is a free educational forum that is open to anyone, especially those seeking participation in the City of Augusta's Down Payment Assistance program.

Workshops will be held on the fourth Saturday of every month except December, which will have class on the first Saturday per the schedule on the left.

The workshop will provide an overview of the home buying process, real estate issues and mortgage options. You will receive important information about becoming mortgage ready. Participants MUST attend the entire workshop to receive a certificate of completion. Please call our office for more information.

Classes will be held at the Headquarters Library on Telfair Street unless otherwise noted (*October 26 calss will be held at the Municipal Building Beazley Room) from 10 am—4 pm with lunch being served.

During the months not offered, classes can be scheduled with the 1st East Central Georgia Partners through our calendar
